

Istanbul Old City Tour with Golden Horn and Bosphorus Cruise

Highlights

- Explore both historical and modern sides of Istanbul in one day
- Visit Yedikule Fortress, Balat streets, and important cultural landmarks
- Enjoy a Golden Horn and Bosphorus cruise experience

Description

The Istanbul Old and Modern City Tour with Golden Horn and Bosphorus Cruise is a full-day experience that brings together different layers of the city, from its historical heritage to its more contemporary districts.

The tour begins with a visit to the impressive Yedikule Fortress, one of the oldest defensive structures of Istanbul, where you can explore its towers and learn about its role in the city's history.

From there, the program continues through some of Istanbul's culturally rich neighborhoods and landmarks. You will see places such as the Galata Tower area and visit the Galata Mevlevi Lodge, one of the most important centers of Sufi culture in the city. The tour also includes a stop at the St. Anthony of Padua Church, one of the largest Catholic churches in Istanbul.

A walk through the Balat district follows, where you can explore its famous streets known for colorful houses, local life, and unique atmosphere, offering great opportunities for photos and a different perspective of the city.

During the day, a lunch at a local restaurant is included, allowing you to take a break and continue the tour comfortably. Drinks during lunch are not included.

In the afternoon, the experience continues with a Golden Horn and Bosphorus cruise, lasting approximately 2 hours. This part of the tour offers panoramic views of Istanbul from the water, including landmarks such as the Bosphorus Bridge, Dolmabahce Palace, Ortakoy Mosque, and waterfront mansions, while also passing through the historic Golden Horn area.

This tour is ideal for travelers who want to experience different sides of Istanbul in one day, combining historical sites, cultural neighborhoods, and a scenic cruise.
